Laying the Foundation, Leaving the Scene
Deuteronomy 27:1-26

2. Cursed would be the man who ______________________ his father or mother. No particular action is specified here.

Deuteronomy 27:16

3. Other violations of the covenant included moving a neighbor's ______________________ stone and thereby undermining the peace of the community for the sake of personal greed.

Deuteronomy 27:17-19

4. The emphasis on ________________________ committed sins is evident in this section on sexual misconduct.

Deuteronomy 27:20-23

5. The idea of __________________________ is continued in the curse upon the man would kill his neighbor secretly.

Deuteronomy 27:24-25

6. The final verse of this chapter ______________________ the summary malediction on all did not uphold the words of God's law by carrying them out.

Deuteronomy 27:26
Main Idea: Moses is soon to leave the scene. The law of God will remain though the man of God will not. God’s commandments, together with the sanctions for violating them, must be taught to future generations. Deuteronomy 27:1-13

A. The Teaching of the Covenant
Deuteronomy 27:1-13

Supporting Idea: The leaders of God’s people are to use both visual and aural means to teach God’s law to the people.

1. Now that the __________________ of the covenant obligations have been specified, the content must be reinforced and the penalties for violating it ____________. Deuteronomy 27:1-3

2. Moses’ instructions to set up the stones on Mount Ebal is apparently to be regarded as a further specification of the same process mentioned in verses 1 - 3 rather than a __________________ display of the law. Deuteronomy 27:4-6

3. Once the vertical dimension had been satisfied, Israel would proceed to offer __________________ offerings on the altar. Deuteronomy 27:7-8

4. So the nation would know that there were ______________ consequences for ______________ to the covenant, Moses gathered beside him the priests to further solemnize the warning. Deuteronomy 27:9-10

5. The people were to be ______________ into two groups. Deuteronomy 27:11-13

B. The Teeth of the Covenant
Deuteronomy 27:14-26

Supporting idea: Israel would place themselves under the judgment of heaven if they should fail to obey Yahweh’s law.

1. Unlike the list that is more formal in Deuteronomy chapter 28, Deuteronomy chapter 27 does not specify the ______________ consequence of disobedience to each covenant violation. Deuteronomy 27:14-15